

San Francisco Chronicle
February 2nd, 1894

Fall of a bright meteor

One near Sacramento which made a brilliant illumination

Sacramento, February 1.- About 10:05 tonight a very brilliant meteor descended northeast of this city and apparently very near.

It made a loud hissing sound as it shot down straight from the zenith and seemed to burst near the earth, lighting up the sky like a thousand electric lights.